Dear Professor von Hauenschild:

In the absence of Dr. Heye our director, who is away for the summer, we beg to acknowledge your letter of May 29th. Upon his return in September or October your letter will be brought to his attention.

In the meantime permit us to express our appreciation for your article on "Mound Builders of Santiago Del Estero" of which you are sending us a copy. As to mounds in the United States the one best book on the subject is "The Mound Builders" by Henry Clyde Shetrone published by D. Appleton and Co., New York, 1930. This book is a very well-known one in our country and doubtlessly could be obtained at one of the institutions in your country as well.

Cyrus Smith

Very truly yours,

MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN
INDIAN HEYE FOUNDATION
